About Us

Founded in 1989 G&A has grown and diversified from a firm offering accounting, tax and auditing services to a multi-dimensional firm offering non-traditional CPA services in areas of business advisory, financial services, technology and information security, and regulatory compliance.

Gaffey & Associates professionals have worked with and for public and private companies, public institutions, trusts, not-for-profit organizations, and individuals. A sample of the services provided include traditional accounting services like audit and tax, as well as, specialized services like governance and compliance initiatives, client education and training, management and board consulting, and work plan development. Further, we bring a breadth and depth of experience to your engagement, as a consequence of our work for government contractors, high tech, financial institutions, real estate and not-for-profit / tax exempt organizations.
